

The B. Jayne Alexander, DO Scholarship Application 2020

Awarded to Osteopathic Students (Graduation 2020 - 2023)

Anne L. Wales, DO founded A Still—Sutherland Study Group (AS—SSG) in November 1986. The Anne L. Wales, DO Foundation (ALWF) honors, in gratitude, the life's work of Anne L. Wales, DO. The ALWF is guided by Dr. Wales' vision to promote and disseminate the teachings of William Garner Sutherland DO, both of his Cranial Concept and of the principles of applied Osteopathy he received from A. T. Still, DO.

The Scholarships offered by the ALWF Foundation are intended to stimulate and financially support the individual study of the Science of Osteopathy by Osteopathic students, interns and residents and to honor the generosity Dr. Wales displayed in supporting, teaching and guiding her students.

The B. Jayne Alexander, DO Scholarship is awarded to Osteopathic Medical Students attending a "Using the Powers Within the Patient's Body" course offered by the AS—SSG, who are selected by an essay writing competition. Up to four $170 scholarships are offered for the 2020 course.

Applicants must register and pay tuition for the course prior to submitting their essay. To enter the competition, please include your Name, Osteopathic Medical College, Year of Graduation and E-mail Address with the essay. Please answer the question below, using the Essay Criteria outlined below, and return by email in Word or PDF to mpburruanodo@aol.com by 2400 hrs. (Midnight) Eastern DST, Monday, March 30, 2020. Submissions after this time will not be considered. Applications will be judged according to their level of information, knowledge and insight, by each of the ALWF Board members. The 4 best essayists will each be awarded a $170 scholarship to the "Using the Powers Within the Patient's Body: Upper Extremity & Trunk" course April 25-26, 2020. Scholarship winners will be notified during the week of April 12, 2020. You must be in attendance to receive the scholarship.

Acceptance of your application for this competition (that is, even if you don't win) will make you eligible for the Anne L. Wales, DO Scholarship→a half price tuition to a Basic (SCTF) or Introductory (OCA) Course in Osteopathy in the Cranial Field. The winner will be chosen by lottery during the AS—SSG Course April 25, 2020. You must be in attendance to win.

Question:

What do think Andrew Taylor Still, DO meant when he said, "To find Health should be the object of the doctor. Anyone can find disease."? (Philosophy of Osteopathy p. 28)

ALWF Essay Criteria

Entries must be received by 24:00 hrs Monday, March 30, 2020 for consideration.

0-5 pts.	Name, COM, Year of Graduation, email address on essay
0-15	Spelling, grammar, typographical errors
0-10	250-500 words
0-5	14 point font
0-5	Format in Word or PDF
0-20	Information (What does this statement mean to you now?)
0-20	Insight (What experience(s) have you had that apply to this meaning?)
0-20	Knowledge (How might/has this understanding guide(d) your study and application of Osteopathic Principles and Practice?)

As we were instructed by Dr. Sutherland, please do your best to "Think Osteopathy" when you are answering the question.